

Employee Assistance Plan Services
Sound Financial Advice is just a
 Phone Call or Click Away

Financial matters can be stressful. Managing the mortgage and car payment, maintaining a good credit score or finding ways to put away something for college or retirement can strain your nerves as well as your wallet. You need help, but that kind of professional help is too costly ... unless you have the right EAP

Sound financial advice is just a phone call away.

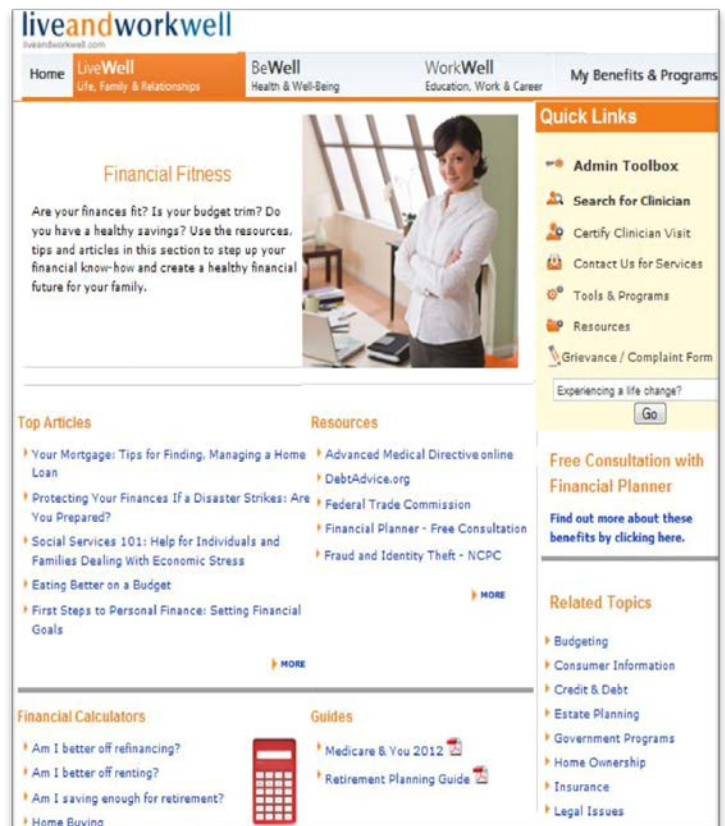

Your Employee Assistance Plan provides confidential financial services, including free telephonic consultations with Financial Specialists, an extensive library of online articles and tools, and help finding verified local professionals who can meet your specific financial needs.

What financial services does your EAP provide?

- No cost 30-60 minute telephonic consultations with a Financial Specialist - per financial issue - with no limit to the number of issues you can call about
- Verified referrals to local professionals for other services that can help meet your financial goals
- Access to online financial information, resources and tools - such as for composing your own simple will.

What can these financial services help with?

- Budgeting
- Credit Management
- Debt Recovery
- Savings
- Identify Theft
- Divorce-Related Issues
- IRS Concerns
- Investment Planning

Information and tools available at Liveandworkwell.com

Who provides these financial services?

Certified Public Accountants and Certified Financial Planners, along with insurance and other finance and investment experts, and lawyers are accessible in all 50 states, as well as Canada and Puerto Rico.

How do I get started?

1. You can learn more and access consults, guides, calculators, a will kit, a retirement planner and more at liveandworkwell.com, your online EAP resource. If you don't have a link from your health plan or HR site, just go to liveandworkwell.com and use your company access code or create your own personal login (that gives you access to all the site tools).

Once in the site, select the Live Well tab and visit the Financial Fitness, Budgeting, Credit and Debt, Retirement or Savings & Investment Centers for resources.

If you want to take advantage of the free consult, you will find the link under resources towards the page bottom. Select Financial Planner - Free Consultation. It should take you right to the CLC Financial and Legal page. Once there, you will see several tools and resources. To request your free consult or referral, click the first financial heading, Financial Resources.

2. You can also call the support number on liveandworkwell (Your EAP number is also available from your HR department), select EAP when prompted and ask for a Financial referral.
